

1. Place the following steps in the writing process in the proper sequence: A) Revising; B) Drafting; C) Proofreading

- a. C, A, B
- b. A, C, B
- c. B, C, A
- d. B, A, C

2. If you were in the prewriting stage of a paper about your favorite movie, what might you do?

- a. Jot down your impressions of your favorite scenes
- b. Write full sentences about why you love the movie
- c. Scan over your paper to make sure your spelling and grammar are correct
- d. Change your words around to make your writing more interesting

3. Which term best describes the prewriting process?

- a. Structured
- b. Rigid
- c. Informal
- d. Mindless

4.  Which of the following options is part of the drafting process?

- a. Putting commas in place
- b. Crafting full sentences
- c. Jotting down notes
- d. Running a spell-check

5. If you're having trouble thinking of a topic for your paper, where is the best place to start?

- a. With a topic that interests you, but you don't know a lot about
- b. With a topic that you've never been interested in--but could be
- c. With a topic that's important to your parents or friends
- d. With a topic that's familiar to you

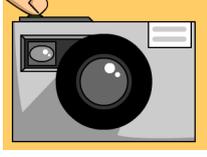

6. Changing words to make your writing more interesting is part of which step in the writing process?

- a. Prewriting
- b. Drafting
- c. Revising
- d. Proofreading

7. What might happen if you didn't proofread your paper?

- a. Your paper might contain grammatical errors
- b. Your paper's topic sentence might not be interesting
- c. Your paper might contain too many words
- d. Your ideas might be useless and incorrect

8. Which of the following items is involved in publishing your paper?

- a.
- b.
- c.
- d.

9. When you're writing a paper, how can your friends and family help you out? Choose the best answer.

- a. By writing your paper for you
- b. By listening to you read your paper out loud
- c. By supplying ideas while you're brainstorming
- d. By changing your words to make your writing more interesting

10. From the information presented in the movie, what can you conclude about the writing process?

- a. It's easier when you proceed in an orderly way
- b. You'll probably get an "F" if you don't proofread carefully enough
- c. Drafting is the most important step in the writing process
- d. If you don't have a lot of revisions, your paper probably isn't good