Reproductive System Quiz

1. What is the function of the reproductive system?
   a. To create sex organs
   b. To expel wastes from the body
   c. To make new humans
   d. To make you feel awkward

6. The sex glands in women are called:
   a. Egg cells
   b. Embryos
   c. Ovaries
   d. Seminal vesicles

2. What might happen if the testes were located inside the body?
   a. Sperm might get too cold and die
   b. Sperm would overheat and die
   c. The testes would interfere with the functioning of the penis
   d. The testes would be called ovaries instead

7. What is the function of the uterus?
   a. It’s where fetuses grow.
   b. It produces hormones that cause egg cells to be released.
   c. It provides a pathway between the ovaries and the vagina.
   d. It prevents women from becoming pregnant.

3. What happens immediately after sperm leave the testes?
   a. They enter the oviduct
   b. They enter the urinary system
   c. They are immediately expelled from the body
   d. They mix with seminal fluid

8. How frequently do ovaries release egg cells?
   a. Once a day
   b. Once a year
   c. Once a month
   d. Once an hour

4. What can you conclude from the fact that adult men make 250 million new sperm cells every day? Choose the best answer
   a. It takes millions of sperm to fertilize an egg cell
   b. The male reproductive system makes more sperm than it needs to fertilize egg cells
   c. Women make millions of egg cells every day as well
   d. The male reproductive system makes too many sperm cells

9. Where do egg cells travel immediately after they’re released from the ovaries?
   a. Into the uterus
   b. Into the vagina
   c. Into the cervix
   d. Into the fallopian tubes

5. Which term best describes the appearance of sperm cells?
   a. Microscopic
   b. Large
   c. Diverse
   d. Red

10. How many egg cells does a woman produce each day?
    a. 1
    b. 100 million
    c. 250 million
    d. None; women are born with a lifetime supply