1. Which two bodily systems are affected by scoliosis?
   a. The cardiovascular and digestive systems
   b. The endocrine and respiratory systems
   c. The muscular and skeletal systems
   d. The immune and nervous systems

2. A scoliosis patient's spine is often shaped like:
   a. The letter "S"
   b. The letter "I"
   c. The letter "J"
   d. The letter "Z"

3. What is the most common effect of scoliosis?
   a. Bone death
   b. Bad posture
   c. Paralysis
   d. Compound fractures

4. Who is most likely to develop scoliosis?
   a. A 9-year-old boy
   b. A 12-year-old girl
   c. A 20-year-old man
   d. A 30-year-old woman

5. When is surgery prescribed for scoliosis patients?
   a. Any time the disease is diagnosed b. Only when the curve of the spine is less than 15 degrees
   c. Only when the curve of the spine is between 20 and 40 degrees
   d. Only when the curve of the spine is greater than 40 degrees

6. Scoliosis is caused by:
   a. A virus
   b. Bacteria
   c. An autoimmune disorder
   d. Unknown factors

7. You are more likely to develop scoliosis if:
   a. Your parents or relatives have suffered from it
   b. You spend a lot of time around scoliosis patients
   c. You don't practice good personal hygiene
   d. You spend a lot of time exercising and playing sports

8. Why do doctors prescribe back braces for scoliosis patients?
   a. To fuse the vertebrae in the spine together
   b. To straighten out the spine
   c. To prevent the curve from worsening
   d. To restrict patients' movements

9. What can you conclude from the fact that scoliosis patients have won Olympic medals?
   a. Scoliosis strengthens patients' muscles
   b. A back brace "teaches" patients proper athletic posture
   c. A curved spine is an asset in the world of sports
   d. Scoliosis can't prevent anyone from succeeding in life

10. In many places, kids are screened for scoliosis once a year. What is the best synonym for "screened for"?
    a. Hospitalized for
    b. Diagnosed with
    c. Cured of
    d. Tested for