

1. When is someone addicted to a drug?

- a. When he enjoys doing it
- b. When he tries it for the first time
- c. When he's unable to stop using it
- d. When he wants to stop using it

2.  What is a drug?

- a. Any substance that is physically addictive
- b. Any substance that affects the functions of your body
- c. Any substance that is enjoyable to put in your body
- d. Any substance that is harmful to your body

3.  How are prescription drugs different from illegal drugs?

- a. Prescription drugs cannot be abused; illegal drugs can
- b. Illegal drugs cannot be abused; prescription drugs can
- c. Prescription drugs are made to be abused; illegal drugs are not
- d. Illegal drugs are made to be abused; prescription drugs are not

4. What does it mean to build up a tolerance?

- a. That someone is physically addicted to a drug
- b. That someone needs more of a drug to get the same effect
- c. That someone is psychologically addicted to a drug
- d. That someone is in danger of overdosing on a drug

5. How are the withdrawal symptoms of caffeine different from the withdrawal symptoms of heroin?

- a. The withdrawal symptoms of caffeine include vomiting; the withdrawal symptoms of heroin do not
- b. The withdrawal symptoms of caffeine last for a few hours; the withdrawal symptoms of heroin last for weeks
- c. The withdrawal symptoms from caffeine include irritability; the withdrawal symptoms of heroin do not
- d. The withdrawal symptoms of heroin are much more serious than the withdrawal symptoms of caffeine

6. What's the first thing you should do if you think a friend is addicted to a drug?

- a. Confront him
- b. Try to take his drugs away
- c. Talk to an adult you trust
- d. Stop being his friend

7. Why are psychologically addictive drugs so hard to quit?

- a. Because they make their users feel good
- b. Because they have withdrawal symptoms
- c. Because users build up a tolerance to them
- d. Because they are always physically addictive as well

8. What is substance abuse?

- a. When someone becomes addicted to a drug
- b. When someone takes a drug just for fun
- c. When someone experiences withdrawal symptoms
- d. When someone becomes irritable without their favorite drug

9. Which of the following is an example of a drug that's psychologically addictive but not physically addictive?

- a. Heroin
- b. Marijuana
- c. Caffeine
- d. Nicotine

10. When does substance abuse become an addiction?

- a. When you take a drug not because you want to, but because you need to
- b. When you take a drug more than seven times
- c. When a drug makes you sick
- d. When you overdose on a drug