1. Which of the following is most likely to mark the boundary between two continents?
   a. A river
   b. A group of hills
   c. A lake
   d. An ocean

2. The six-continent and seven-continent models differ in:
   a. The number of countries in Europe
   b. The status of South America
   c. The variety of climate types in Africa
   d. The number of oceans in the world

3. Which country is part of North America?
   a. Mexico
   b. England
   c. China
   d. Russia

4. Which two continents have the most similar climates?
   a. North America and Antarctica
   b. Africa and Asia
   c. Europe and Australia
   d. South America and Africa

5. What factor makes Antarctica unique among the continents?
   a. It is cold during the winter
   b. It contains glaciers
   c. It has no permanent residents
   d. Penguins live there

6. On which continent does the majority of the world's population live?
   a. b. c. d.

7. Which phrase best describes Europe?
   a. A small continent with few countries
   b. A large continent with few countries
   c. A small continent with many countries
   d. A large continent with many countries

8. What can you infer about Australian wildlife from the information presented in the movie?
   a. Many species exist only in Australia
   b. No mammals live on the continent
   c. Most species have gone extinct
   d. Dinosaurs once lived there

9. New Guinea is considered part of:
   a. The country New Zealand
   b. The geographic region Oceania
   c. The country Australia
   d. The continent Australia

10. The countries of Oceania are all:
     a. Densely populated
     b. Islands
     c. Part of continental Australia
     d. Located in the Atlantic Ocean